AT.TENSION FESTIVAL

End the festival season with a theatre extravaganza. Stop by the third at.tension festival at a former Russian military airport: three days of fresh, provocative theatre, dance and sheer spectacle from over 40 international groups. After a fruitful youth nurtured by Fusion, at.tension expanded to become its own entity, with a focus on young, experimental and bizarre theatre. This year's edition highlights Spanish theatre (like Senza Tempo, photo) and street theatre; concerts, movies, workshops, parties and kiddie activities round out the offerings. It's two hours north of Berlin, but totally worth the trip!
